Dear Ladies and Gents,

It is our great pleasure to welcome you to Monmouth Arts’ All That Jazz gala fundraiser, a swanky, bee’s knees party that will be the talk of the town! We have a fantastic evening planned for you, filled with music, dance, cocktails, creative cuisine, and one-of-a-kind auction items. Funds raised from tonight’s event will support arts programs and services that address the needs and interests of artists, arts organizations, nonprofits, and the Monmouth County community.

This evening we will celebrate the work and dedication of four individuals who made significant contributions to the arts community. The honorees include Chris Pinnella, vocalist and songwriter; Gabe Chajnik, Founding Director of the Axelrod Contemporary Ballet Theater, dancer and choreographer; Vaune Peck, Founding Director of Monmouth University’s Center for the Arts, an art advocate, and artist; and the T. Thomas Fortune Cultural Center, Co-founded by Gilda Rogers, a social advocate, journalist, and historian.

Thank you to the Monmouth Arts staff, Board of Directors, and the All That Jazz committee, who worked tirelessly to create an unforgettable evening. Thank you to our sponsors, auction donors, and journal advertisers for their support. Special thanks to Gatsby Now, Gatsby Dancers, Ocean Avenue Stompers, Chris Pinnella, and Axelrod Contemporary Ballet Theater for sharing their extraordinary talent with us this evening.

Lastly, we thank each of you for joining us and supporting the arts community in Monmouth County.

Have a swinging time and cheers to you, old sport!

Sincerely,

David Stout, PhD, President

Artistic Achievement Award

Born and raised in New Jersey, Chris began his professional career at the age of 16 after auditioning for Maestro Fr. Alphonse Stephenson & the Orchestra of St. Peter. He went on to pursue music and received his degree from Marymount Manhattan College in NYC. After graduating, Chris was heavily involved in NYC’s theatre scene, auditioning for Broadway plays, performing in off-Broadway productions, and working alongside Dame Julie Andrews, Tony nominees John Bucchino & Marcia Milgrom Dodge, and Oscar / Emmy Winner Ian Fraser. Since then the seasoned performer has built his brand as a bandleader, performing with symphony orchestras around the country, leading his own combos of anywhere from 8 to 15 players or (for several tours of North America and Europe) lending his finely honed skills to the prog-rock / crossover locomotive known as the Trans-Siberian Orchestra. Chris has performed at venues that range from local theatres, including the Count Basie Center for the Arts, Axelrod PAC, and Pollak Theatre, to prestigious NYC venues such as Birdland, the Rainbow Room, and the Rose Theatre at Jazz at Lincoln Center. Currently, he is working on writing and arranging his debut EP, which is set to drop in 2022.
Wearing the hat of historian, Gilda Rogers is Co-Chair of the T. Thomas Fortune Foundation Board. She led the grassroots organization to save and preserve the T. Thomas Fortune House, the National Historic Landmark home of T. Thomas Fortune—leading African American journalist, author, orator, and civil rights activist of the 19th and early 20th centuries—located in Red Bank, New Jersey. Now the house operates as a Cultural Center run by the T. Thomas Fortune Foundation and partners with schools and other organizations to promote Fortune’s legacy of social justice advocacy to further racial equity. Gilda is also an award-winning journalist and the author of three books, the most recent one, Out of the Ashes Came Hope; a director and producer of the short documentary A Man and His Music; and one of the playwrights of Supernatural: The Play. Gilda was named Humanitarian of the Year in 2017 by the Monmouth County Human Relations Commission. The American Association of University Women also named Gilda as one of the honorees of its first-ever Women of Achievement award in 2018. She currently teaches history as an adjunct professor at Brookdale Community College.
Monmouth University Center for the Arts Directed by Vaune Peck Excellence in the Arts Award

Vaune Peck’s career spans more than 35 years in arts administration and most notably, as the founding Director of Monmouth University’s Center for the Arts, she created a comprehensive performing arts and cultural events program that now presents well over 150 events annually. A strong advocate for the arts, her roles include artist/agent relations, programming, strategic planning, grant writing, fundraising, public relations, community outreach, marketing, curating, and much more. Her own strong artistic and creative abilities (as an exhibiting painter and sculptor) aid in her understanding of what artists need to confidently perform or exhibit their work at the university. She graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts in Art and a Minor in Advertising Design and holds a Master of Arts in Liberal Arts Degree from Monmouth University. A few of her notable past and present professional affiliations include Association of Performing Arts Professionals, Monmouth Arts Trustee, Long Branch Arts Council Trustee, Long Branch Poetry Festival Co-Founder, Open Center Foundation Art of Healing, and Founder of the Association of Independent Art Galleries.
Gabriel Chajnik
Artistic Achievement Award

Gabriel Chajnik, born in Buenos Aires, Argentina, is a passionate dance educator, an internationally renowned choreographer, and director. Gabriel stepped into the role of Artistic Director for the Axelrod Contemporary Ballet Theater, a program of The Axelrod Performing Arts Center (APAC), after meeting Elise Feldman, Jess Levy, Andrew DePrisco, and the APAC Board. Gabriel’s work has been featured at the Juilliard School, the Manhattan School of Music, the Shakespeare Theatre in Washington, D.C., Alice Tully Hall, the Clark Theatre at Lincoln Center, Manhattan Movement and Arts Center, and the Lambs Theatre amongst others. One of his most notable works was G*D, a Holocaust Awareness outreach performance that reached over 7,500 students and teachers throughout the tri-state area. Gabriel also founded, along with AXCBT-APAA President Elise Feldman, the Axelrod Performing Arts Academy (APAA), adding to the educational programming offered by APAC during the COVID-19 pandemic. In addition, Gabriel fostered collaboration with Bell Works Creative Director Paola Zamudio and created a series of events at Bell Works that allowed a safe guest experience during the pandemic.
